After the Memories

When all we have left are the photographs, all we can see is what there was years ago. We don't see the connection to the present. We are looking at a world that no longer exists, a place that we do not recognize or can relate to the modern world.

Unless. Unless we can go out and find those places in the world and show how the old and new coexist in the same place at different times.

Joe Lipka has shared his vision since he began photographing.

In the last thirty years, his photographs have appeared in over one hundred juried exhibitions, more than twenty solo exhibitions and have been printed in both LensWork and Black & White Photography (UK) Magazines.

His website www.joelipkaphoto.com has continuously evolved since it was launched in 2004. His blog Postcards from the Creative Journey, published weekly since 2010, is a collection of his photographs and thoughts on the creative process.
